VAILE WITHDRAWS BRYANT CHARGES

Harry Vaile Does Not Care to Prosecute.

BURKE TRIAL CONTINUED

Attorneys Unable to Appear in Court.

Vaile States That He Was Responsible

For the Shooting Which Occurred in the Erie Yards Last Monday.

Horse is Stolen From Man in Rosewood Addition Saturday Night.

After an investigation of the shooting of Harry E. Vaile, of West Barberton, by Erie Watchman A. L.

Byrant in the Erie yards last Monday morning the affidavit for Byrant's arrest, charging him with shooting with intent to wound, was withdrawn Saturday. The affidavit had been filed by Chief of Police, Klinefelter, who thought an investigation should be made and signed the affidavit with that end in view.

Lieutenant Ellsworth of the Erie police force, interviewed Vaile at the Marion City hospital Saturday afternoon. Vaile refused to appear against Byrant, stating that the watchman was not to blame for the shooting.

His story of the fight, corroborated the story told by Byrant.

During the investigation by Ell-worth other things developed which were not favorable to Byrant and he was discharged from the Erie service.

The shooting, however, had no bearing on this action.

John Physant, who resides in the Rosewood addition, reported to the police that his horse had been stolen from his barn Saturday night. The animal is black with a white forehead eleven years old and stands about fifteen and one-half hands high.

R. LAWRENCE IS FREED BY COURT

Was Convicted of Bootlegging and Sent to Workhouse.

GRANTS ERROR PETITION

Petition of Wm. McInerow Overruled by Court.

Viola E. Harris and Alice M. Stevens Are Granted Divorces—Sale of Property Confirmed—Other News of the Courts.

By decisions handed down by Judge Scotfield of the common pleas court this morning, one alleged bootlegger was set free from the Dayton workhouse but another must remain there and serve out the fine and costs imposed by Mayor J. G. Seiter in the mayor's court.

The petition in error filed by Redmond Lawrence against the state of Ohio in which he asks to have the mayor's decision set aside was granted by the court. Lawrence is now a free man.

On July 27 Lawrence was found guilty of selling, furnishing and giving away intoxicating liquors, fined $100 and costs and, upon failure to give bond for his appearance for trial in the common pleas court, was sent to the Dayton workhouse by Mayor Seiter.

William McInerow's petition in error, asking to have the mayor's decision of his case in the mayor's court set aside, was overruled by Judge Scotfield, thereby sustaining Mayor Seiter's decision.

On September 5, McInerow was found guilty of violating the liquor laws and fined $500 and costs, as it was his second offense. He was sent to the workhouse after his failure to furnish bond for his appearance in the common pleas court for trial and, under the ruling of Judge Scotfield, will remain there until the fine and costs are worked out.

Jola E. Harris was granted a divorce from Thomas E. Harris this morning by Judge Scotfield. In the common pleas court on the grounds of habitual drunkenness, cruelty and non-support. The testimony in the case brought out that Harris chewed tobacco at night while in bed and made his presence disagreeable by kissing on the cheek.

The couple were married July 25, 1909. They have no children.

Alice M. Stevens was granted a divorce from James E. Stevens on the grounds of drunkenness and failure to provide. The testimony showed that Stevens kept a bottle of liquor under his pillow and frequently would set it up in the night and drink copious draughts until he became intoxicated.
The couple were married May 12, 1881, and have five children. The oldest of whom is 19 years of age.

The court overruled the motion to make a cross-petition more definite and certain in the case of O. G. Garson against the National Novelty company. The plaintiff filed exceptions.

In the matter of the Citizens' Building and Loan company against Millie Baldwin the sale of certain property was confirmed and a deed ordered drawn. The sheriff was ordered to pay the taxes, assessments, and claim of the plaintiff out of the proceeds and to retain the balance for further orders of the court.

In the matter of the Citizens bank company against Jessie L. Smucker an order for foreclosure proceedings
orders of the court.

A motion to reform the petition in the matter of Henry W. Sager against the American Casualty company was overruled by the court. The defendant entered exceptions.

Belle E. Scotfield, through her attorney, L. E. Myers, filed a petition for divorce against her husband, Benjamin F. Scotfield, in the common pleas court Saturday afternoon.

The petition says that the couple were married in November, 1899 and since that time, the plaintiff has performed all the duties incumbent on her as a wife while her husband has been guilty of extreme cruelty and gross neglect. The plaintiff is sick from a malady which in all probability, she states, will cause her death in a short time.

A motion was also filed by Mrs.
Scotfield for allowance of alimony pendent lite. The motion asks for the payment of her physicians and the ordinary expenses of her sickness, the payment of her counsel and for her maintenance during the time of the above action.

In the matter of Carl W. Sawyer and others, against the Ohio Sanitarium company, the common pleas court approved and confirmed the report of the appraisers and ordered the sale of property as upon execution at law.

In the matter of Orin F. Brady and others against Robert M. Butler and others in the common pleas court, the finding was in favor of the plaintiffs and they were entitled to the relief demanded with decree quieting title as asked for in petition. Judgment was given against the plaintiffs for the costs by the court.

The defendants were given leave to plead before December 18 in the case of Shetterly against Henry Streitz and others.

Because of the inability of the attorneys to be present in the mayor's court this morning the trial of C. E. and William Burke was continued until this afternoon.

TURKEY MUST

Europe it is agreed that Turkey is in imminent danger of dismemberment and division among the powers.
It is entering upon the struggle for its existence, too, with only $5,000,000 cash in its war chest.

The Italian censorship is so severe that even the most innocent business and personal messages are held from twelve to twenty-five hours. According to last advices King Victor was personally supervising preparations for the embarkation of 3,000 additional troops for the occupation of Tripoli.
He is selecting even the junior officers of the expedition. "Everything must be done," he answered, when his attention to detail was commented on, "to raise our army's prestige in the eyes of Europe."

Sentiment in favor of a jihad, or holy war, is steadily growing here, and according to reports in other Mohammedan countries.

Followers of the prophet have long felt that the time was approaching when a desperate blow must be struck for their religion or the constant aggression by christian countries would soon make every Mohammedan nation on earth the tributary of some power of the occidental faith.

War Minister Cheikfat Pasha, the strongest man in Turkey, is said to be among those who believe that the time has come when not Turkey alone but all Mohammedans must choose between submission by the christians and a fight to the death. Such is the sultan's spiritual authority among the "faithful" that such an uprising is quite within the bounds of possibility.

THE FIGHT MAKES WILEY SUPREME

Pure Food Law Will be Enforced as Wiley
Wants it.

By United Press Wire.

Washington, Oct. 2.—That the war on Dr. Harvey W. Wiley was the best thing that ever happened to him and that hereafter the pure food law will be enforced as Dr. Wiley has been trying for years to enforce it, was admitted in official circles here today.

Through the force of public opinion, as expressed in his favor during the fight, Wiley was invested with more real power than any official in Washington has had in many years.
He now believes that he has his commission directly from the people, all intermediaries having been proved powerless.

It is admitted that "Secretary" of Agriculture Wilson will ask President Taft to separate the bureau of chemistry from the agricultural department as Wilson now is convinced that the pure food law has nothing directly to do with tilling the soil.

Wiley's bureau may be attached to the marine hospital service or otherwise shifted so that Wiley will have supreme control over the food and drug acts.

Family of Nine Children Die When House Burns.

Indiana, Pa., Oct. 2.—The funeral of the nine children of Mr. and Mrs. William Dias, burned to death when a fire destroyed the Dias home near Heshbon, was held today.
The ashes of all were buried in one coffin. The parents are nearly prostrated.

The children were: Carl, thirteen; Harry, eleven; Ele-nore and Lenora, twins, eight; Albert, seven; Ralph, five; Foster, three; Willis, two, and Ruth, three months.

Hardy trees of Europe are to be planted on the slopes of the Rocky mountains.
